

Intellectual Property Policy

Above The Influence Network

Website: www.atinetwork.net

Contact: sbryant@atinetwork.net

1. Introduction

This Intellectual Property (IP) Policy applies to all content, materials, and assets associated with Above The Influence Network ("ATI"). The purpose of this policy is to establish clear guidelines for the ownership, protection, and use of intellectual property on the ATI website (www.atinetwork.net) and across all related platforms. ATI is committed to protecting its intellectual property rights while respecting the IP of others.

2. Ownership of Intellectual Property

All content on the ATI website, including but not limited to text, images, graphics, logos, videos, audio, design elements, and digital materials, is the exclusive property of ATI unless otherwise stated. This also includes all program names, slogans, and any proprietary materials developed by ATI for the purposes of empowering youth, providing education, and community outreach.

3. Use of Intellectual Property

ATI grants visitors and users of the website a limited, non-exclusive license to access and view the materials for personal, non-commercial use. No part of the content may be copied, reproduced, distributed, or transmitted in any form or by any means without the prior written permission of ATI, except as expressly permitted under copyright law.

4. Third-Party Intellectual Property

ATI respects the intellectual property rights of others. If you believe that any content on the ATI website infringes upon the intellectual property rights of a third party, please contact us immediately at sbryant@atinetwork.net, and we will take appropriate action to investigate and, if necessary, remove or modify the content in question.

5. Trademarks

All trademarks, service marks, logos, and trade names displayed on the ATI website are the registered or unregistered trademarks of ATI or third-party licensors. The use of any ATI trademarks without express written consent is strictly prohibited.

6. Copyright Infringement

ATI takes the protection of its intellectual property seriously and will pursue any unauthorized use or infringement. If you wish to use any of ATI's materials for educational or other non-commercial purposes, please contact us at sbryant@atinetwork.net to obtain written permission.

7. Reporting Infringements

If you believe any content on the ATI website infringes upon your intellectual property rights, please contact us with the following information:

- A description of the IP you claim has been infringed.
- A description of where the infringing material is located on the ATI website.
- Your contact information, including your name, address, phone number, and email.
- A statement that you have a good faith belief that the use of the content in question is not authorized by the intellectual property owner.

8. Changes to This Policy

ATI reserves the right to amend this Intellectual Property Policy at any time. Any changes will be posted on this page, and users are encouraged to review this policy periodically.
