Chauncey Bryant's diverse entrepreneurial ventures, coupled with his steadfast commitment to serving youth and families facing adversity, position him as Above the Influence Network's visionary leader. Drawing from his longstanding commitment for youth development and mentorship, which was inspired by caring for his daughter with cerebral palsy, Chauncey has dedicated his career to empowering transitional-aged individuals through impactful programming and local partnerships.

Chauncey is determined to lift up the marginalized youth and underserved neighborhoods of Marin County. A resident of the area for the past 14 years, Chauncey's mission is to provide boots-on-the-ground outreach, youth workshops, and mental health services that will train, activate, and unleash young leaders through youth-led initiatives. Chauncey firmly believes that all youth possess the potential to lead, and the sooner they can discover their gifts, define their purpose, and unlock their potential, the more they will create and inspire positive change throughout the world. Chauncey's own lived experiences with homelessness and substance use give him a unique perspective and the ability to speak to issues that many have not personally encountered.

Over the past several years, Chauncey has been a present help to the unhoused and overlooked populations in Marin, bringing an exuberant personality, joy, and excitement into every interaction. As a Novato resident, Chauncey is deeply committed to his wife, family, and community.
